EDMONTON REPORT

by Ken Mason
Special Correspondent

EDMONTON — Members of the Alberta Legislature returned to Edmonton this week for the second sitting of the 1955 legislative session — a sitting which may turn out to be the most important of the year.

When the session adjourned in April for the Easter recess, the legislature still had not disposed of some of the major bills presented to the house by Premier Manning's government.

In addition to that, there is the question of natural gas export to eastern Canada, in the light of the failure of Trans-Canada Pipe Line Ltd. to obtain financial backing for its proposed $300,000,000 project. The premier gave this as the main reason for calling members back to a special session.

But one of the main items of unfinished business, and certainly the most contentious so far, is the bill which would permit establishment of producer-controlled marketing boards, to market certain agricultural products and set prices. The marketing legislation became such a political hot potato that the government, decided to give it to a meeting of the house agriculture committee, which consists of all 61 members of the legislature.

At last report, the Alberta Federation of Agriculture and the Western Stock Growers' Association had signified their intention to submit briefs to the committee. It was believed both groups would be opposed to the bill as it was presented to the house — but for different reasons.

The AFA was expected to ask for fewer restrictions on the establishment of marketing boards, while the stockmen already have expressed strong opposition against the idea of having cattle and sheep included in the legislation covering the boards. Because of this opposition, cattle and sheep were excluded from the bill introduced by Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture.

The AFA was expected to oppose the provision in the bill that a marketing board for a specific product can be set up only if 51 per cent of the registered producers vote in favor of it. The group believes this restriction will make it too difficult to set up a board, and was expected to ask for an amendment making it a majority of those who actually get out and vote.

Usually solid Social Credit ranks are split on the marketing board question, and for still another reason. Several Social Credit backbenchers spoke strongly against the compulsory features. They didn't like the idea of a 51-per cent majority imposing its will on 49 per cent who don't want marketing boards.

MLA's debating the bill used words like "dictatorship" and phrases like "justice to farmers," which gives some indication of the lively battle that has been going on in the Social Credit caucus over the same question for a number of years. Some Social Creditors have said the bill will be abandoned after the agriculture committee hearing.

As the bill stood when introduced in April, it would permit establishment of producer boards to market poultry, poultry products, hogs, vegetables, honey, cheese, commercial grass and legume seed.

Another bill concerning agriculture has yet to receive third reading, and it has been described as one of the most important of the 1955 session. It is an act to provide for conservation and more efficient use of natural resources, especially agricultural land.

Mr. Halmrast introduced the bill toward the end of the sitting in April, and announced that it will involve setting up a board of experts to survey various types of land in the province and determine the best use for them.

Earlier, the agriculture minister said many farmers are using their land for the wrong purpose — such as trying to grow wheat when the characteristics of the land are better suited to raising sheep.

The new program is designed to advise farmers on the best land

50 Mills This Year

Town of Vulcan Tax Rate Down 5 Mills

Mill rates for the Town of Vulcan were set at the regular council meeting held Monday evening and show a reduction of 5 mills from last year. Inasmuch as the same assessment will be used, this will mean about a 10 per cent reduction in taxes for local property owners this year.

The new rates are: School 25, Municipal 21, Hospital 4. The school rate is down 4 mills from last year and the municipal (general government) rate down 1 mill. The mill rate of 50 for 1955 is down 5 mills from last year's 55.

The minimum hospital rate per year has been raised from $8 to $10, and this means that property owners must either have a minimum assessment of $2500 or be charged an additional amount to bring the hospital tax they pay up to the $10 minimum.

A complete new business assessment has been made in an effort to equalize business taxes paid. The new business tax rate is 20 mills, but the assessment is, in most cases, considerably higher.

Miss Elinor Hyslip Wed at Calgary

The chapel of Central United church, Calgary was the scene of a pretty double ring ceremony, Saturday afternoon, April 30, when Dr. C. B. Switzer united in marriage Florence Elinor Hyslip, R.N., only daughter of Mrs. Annie Hyslip and the late Hazen Hyslip, Vulcan, and Edwin Moschenross, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Moschenross of Calgary.

Mrs. Phyllis Chapman Clarke played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Irene Allen, R.N., sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her brother Amond Hyslip of Vulcan, the bride was charming in a gown of emerald green over satin. The ankle length gown was designed with a fitted bodice, a queen Anne collar, long lily-point sleeves and tiny buttons in the deep waistband. Her finger-tip veil was studded with rhine-stones and held in place by a jewelled coronet. She carried a spray bouquet of pink Delight roses.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Robert Lee of Calgary, wore a mauve lace gown over taffeta, with tiny ruffles of nylon net. Her floral cloche, with short veil, matched her dress, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and silver streamers.

The groom was attended by his brother, Harold, as best man. The two ushers were John Hyslip, uncle of the bride, and Robert Lee of Calgary.

Following the ceremony a reception for 40 guests was held in the Royal Room of the Royal Hotel. Receiving with the bridal couple were the mother of the bride and parents of the groom.

Mrs. Hyslip chose for her daughter's wedding a classic model of imported lace in Queen's blue, with which she wore matching accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

The mother of the groom was attended by Mr. Halmrast put it, "take some of the heartbreak out of farming." He said much of the board's work will be done on land opened up for homestead leasing, including the grey wooded soil areas.

Just what the outcome of gas export discussions will be is anyone's guess. Since the session adjourned in April, Premier Manning has been holding talks with pipeline company officials, gas producers and officials of the Ontario Government.

Originally, it was believed he would have a definite program to place before the legislature. Recently, however, he announced that a meeting of interested parties will be held in Ottawa after the reconvened session.

At that meeting, he said, officials will attempt to decide definitely whether export of Alberta gas to the east is economically feasible. If it isn't, he said, "we'll have to look elsewhere."

The government has been concerned over the delay in selling Alberta gas, and considers it harmful to the province's economy to have the gas remaining in the ground with no available market.

Cinemascope at Vulcan Theatre Next Weekend

The greatest advance made by the motion picture industry since the introduction of sound films is the cinemascope screen coupled with stereophonic sound and, commencing next weekend, this new development in movie entertainment will be available to patrons of the Vulcan Theatre.

Although many Alberta theatres have installed the wide screen, very few have also installed the stereophonic sound system, without which much of the added entertainment value of cinemascope production is lost. The complete installation of a cinemascope screen with high-fidelity stereophonic sound system, now being made at the Vulcan Theatre, is only the fourth such installation south of Edmonton. Only two Calgary theatres and one Lethbridge theatre are equipped with cinemascope plus stereophonic sound, their equipment being exactly the same as that now being installed at Vulcan.

Ted Grimes, sound engineer for General Theatre Supplies, is installing the new equipment at the local theatre. The new cinemascope screen, which will be installed in the next few days, is 12 ft. high and 28 ft. in width. Although designed expressly for the showing of cinemascope productions, it can also be used for screening standard size films, short subjects and newsreels, etc. Converting electrical power to the direct current required is a new, large generator, housed in the basement and driven by a 20 h.p. motor.

Three separate high-fidelity speaker systems are being installed, which enables the sound to be identified with the action on the screen, i.e. if the action is at the left side of the screen the sound also comes from the left side. The three separate sound systems enable the sound to thus follow the action on the big screen, adding considerably to the realism of the picture. This is accomplished through the film strip containing three complete magnetic sound tracks instead of the usual single optical sound track. This has an added value, too, in that the magnetic sound tracks give a purity of sound not possible to attain in an optical sound track.

The regular optical sound system is being retained for use with standard-type films, but it is the intention of theatre manager C. R. Robson to offer as many cinemascope productions as possible.

The first cinemascope production to be shown in Vulcan will be next weekend, May 19-20-21, when the 20th Century-Fox film, "Broken Lance", in full color will be shown. A short subject, "The Miracle of Stereophonic Sound," will also be shown and illustrates the superiority of magnetic sound recording over other systems.

The bride was attended by her brother, Harold, as best man. The two ushers were John Hyslip, uncle of the bride, and Robert Lee of Calgary.

Vulcan ball fans will be pleased to learn that Jack Altman, left-handed pitching ace of last year's team, will be back with the Vulcan Elks this season. Other imports from Fresno will be a right-handed pitcher, a shortstop and a catcher who can also play the third base position. Several promising younger local players will join the team this year and will be brought along carefully with the coaching aid of the American imports.

The result of the vote on the sewerage plebiscite held Monday, April 9 was 74 for the by-law and 16 against the by-law.

Choral Society Elects Officers

Mrs. Clara Gonyea, Mrs. Mavis Koebeck, Mrs. Jeanette Hanson and Mrs. Linda Warden were hostesses Monday evening in the United Social hall at a dinner party, in honor of the Vulcan Choral Society.

A most enjoyable social evening was enjoyed, with Albert Collier being in charge of a delightful program.

Election of officers for the ensuing year was held, with results as follows: president, Dr. G.H. Gibb; 1st vice-president, Bruce Gonyea; 2nd vice-president, Albert Collier; secretary-treasurer, Darrel Malsey; musical director, Rev. J. S. Clarke and accompanist, Mrs. W. W. Almond.

Mrs. Ray Flitton gave a very interesting paper on Home Economics and her topic being "Education in the Home." A buzz session was fully enjoyed, and everyone partook in discussion of the following questions:

1. To spank or not to spank, and why.

2. Beneficial and detrimental effects of comics and TV in the home and why.

3. At what age and how should the facts of life be presented.

4. Age 13, "doorway to adolescence" — what are teen-agers greatest problems, and how can we assist in them coping with them.

The tea draw was won by Mrs. Flitton. Lunch was served by the hostess.

From Export Feeder Line

Natural Gas Possible In Two or Three Years

A survey conducted by the Alberta Gas Conservation Board, indicates that the towns of Barons, Carmangay, Champion, Kirkcaldy, Vulcan and Armada can be economically supplied with natural gas, following the completion of the Pincher Creek export feeder line. This information was given at a recent meeting of representatives of the towns concerned and the County of Vulcan with the Gas Conservation Board in Calgary.

It means, in effect, that the towns mentioned can anticipate having natural gas in 1957 or 1958, dependent of course, upon settlement of the gas export problem and the completion of the Pincher Creek export line.

The Gas Conservation Board's findings show that Barons (3½ miles from the feeder line) and Armada (less than 1 mile from the feeder line) would require individual stub lines. Carmangay, which is 2½ miles from the proposed route of the feeder line, could be served by a stub line or by a sales lateral which would extend northward to Vulcan, servicing Champion and Kirkcaldy enroute. The distance to Vulcan would be 2½ miles.

The board recommended that serious consideration be given to have all the towns serviced by one company at a uniform price and thereby eliminate excessive rates, hearings and reduce overhead expenses.

Rates would be set to allow the gas company a rate of return of 7½ per cent.

Teachers' Institute Held at Vulcan

On Thursday Miss Alice Heenan, educational consultant and advisor with the Scott-Foresman Publishing Co. of New York, addressed teachers of the County of Vulcan at the Vulcan school. All teachers of the County were present. Miss Heenan, who was here with the approval of the Department of Education, presented the different levels of reading from grade 1 to grade 12 and used the grade 9 class to demonstrate the use of the dictionary as an aid to reading.

The Vulcan Home and School Association served dinner to the teachers at noon, and the A.T.A. local served coffee at the conclusion of the school day.

Later the Vulcan local of the A.T.A. held its meeting, at which time it was decided to combine track meet and Jubilee program for this year. Each school will put on its own jubilee program, individually.

Teachers will hold a banquet June 15, with the Home and School catering. Each school will contribute an item to the program.

M. D. Jarell, eminent Trichologist, demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented.

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist Offers Written Guarantee

An exclusive interview by Ward Allen

LONDON, ONTARIO, (Special) — M. D. Jarell, Director of Jarell Hair Experts of Canada exploded the "myth of baldness" today in an exclusive interview. "Baldness is unnecessary, costly and a plague to mankind," says Jarell. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Jarell method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness — can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair — can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To Be Held In Vulcan

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Vulcan, Alberta, Sunday ONLY, May 15th, at the Dobbs Hotel. Trichologist, I. Cooley will conduct the private, individual interview from 12 noon until 9:00 P.M. on Sunday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation, and you need no appointment.

Reason For Baldness

"There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. "Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is infected with dandruff, excessive oiliness, or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair." Men, and yes, women too walk the streets today, completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament — hair. Simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. "The simple answer," emphasized this expert, "is that children should be taught the same simple, basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case, baldness would be a rarity today!"

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Jarell dodged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness — heredity. "Mankind's un-realistic belief that baldness is heredity stems from a misinterpretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families, a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp. The purpose of Jarell Hair and Scalp Experts is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy, vigorous condition. A healthy scalp will grow hair, if it is not already completely bald," assures Jarell.

Is There Hope For The Completely Bald?

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Jarell has collected hundreds of testimonies of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy, mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination, hair and scalp analysis, and a diagnosis of the disorder. Jarell is quick however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Jarell, "that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers A Guarantee

"Jarell Hair Experts of Canada, offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted within 30 days, the money invested, will be graciously refunded," pledged Jarell. "We must have satisfied clients. We must regrow hair. After all, it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about your hair, call Trichologist R. Cooley at the Dobbs Hotel in Vulcan, Alberta, Sunday ONLY from 12 noon to 9:00 P.M. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to men and women. You do not need an appointment, and you will not be embarrassed or obliged in any way.

Milo, Queenstown, Armada and district have gone over the top in the 1955 Canadian Red Cross Society's campaign for funds with $568.00 subscribed. Quota for the area was $590.00.

In announcing the success of the drive, Campaign Chairman Mel P. Schaub said: "I wish to thank, most sincerely, of Milo, Queenstown, Armada and district who have, once more, given generously to the Society's annual campaign."

"The funds they have contributed will allow the Society to carry on its many peace-time programs including the care of crippled children and the Blood Transfusion Service."

"These funds will also carry on the many other services of Red Cross including Swimming and Water Safety, Junior Red Cross, disaster services and the Women's Work Committee which makes thousands of sewn and knitted garments for the needy."

The Provincial Red Cross quota this year is $475,800 although the Canadian Red Cross Society is budgeting to spend $619,596 in the province.

After the supper, Kay Leslie read a report on the winter's activities which included the program for the evening. The program was as follows: a sing song; a demonstration on posture by Elsie Leslie and Gail Scott; a reading by Selma Tangen; song by the 4-H girls, "Open up Your Hearts"; a piano duet by Janice and Judy Leslie; a demonstration on how to make macaroons by Kay Leslie and Joyce Christie; recitation by Elsie Leslie; Gail Scott's band gave us a version of an Irish band; Doreen Christie showed us how to carve a roast of meat; skit "Reading the News."

MASSEY-HARRIS MACHINES TRACK-TESTED for DURABILITY FIELD-TESTED for EFFICIENCY

TESTING — TESTING — TESTING —

Testing is never-ending at Massey-Harris. Track testing goes on day and night, winter and summer at the Massey-Harris-Ferguson Test Track. Tractors and implements are checked with electronic equipment for stress and strain analysis. They are endurance tested for ability to stand-up under long usage and are given severe shake-down tests over the bumps to check resistance to breakages.

Steel, paint and other materials are analyzed and tested in the factory laboratory to insure that they meet requirements and specifications—careful check is kept on foundry castings—inspection departments make constant assembly and run-off tests on production machines.

Field testing is a constant year round activity of the engineering divisions of Massey-Harris-Ferguson. Machines are sent south in the winter time and follow the harvest north until freeze-up to give new models as much work in the field as possible. Machines are tested under many varied conditions for ability to do their work well, for ease of handling, for economy of operation, and for capacity to do a good job. Well designed, well built and thoroughly tested Massey-Harris and Ferguson machines offer outstanding features in modern equipment. Your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars.

HOW MANY MINUTES PER GALLON?

Of course, you don't have to make gasoline yourself. But you do have to work at your job to make the money to buy gasoline. And today you don't have to work nearly as long as you did in 1939, or even 1946.

Back in 1939, the average Canadian had to work 33 minutes to earn enough to buy a gallon of gasoline.

Seven years later, in 1946, the same Canadian had to work 29 minutes to earn enough to buy a gallon of gasoline.

Today he has to work only 17 minutes—about half as long as in 1939—to buy a gallon of gasoline.

(It's much better gasoline, too. Two gallons of today's gasoline does the work of three gallons made in the 20's.)

"THE CANADIAN" HEADS West: W. A. Mather, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway (right insert), pulls the switch that sends "The Canadian" — C.P.R.'s new transcontinental scenic dome train — on her way across the nation, as Mayor Jean Drapeau of Montreal looks on. The gleaming, all stainless steel streamliner streaked through the 2,881 miles from Montreal to Vancouver in 71 hours and 10 minutes, as compared with the former transcontinental time of 87 hours, 10 minutes. Eastbound, the schedule has been reduced by 12 hours and 30 minutes to 70 hours, 20 minutes. Thousands of persons lined the right way as "The Canadian" made her inaugural run

With The District Agriculturist
Hugh MichaelMore Sheep Required

The production of sheep in Canada is far below our domestic requirements. During 1954 Canadians used about 47 million pounds of wool, but produced only 8.5 million, of which about a third was exported. This would be a net deficit in wool production of nearly 40 million pounds. About 5 million additional sheep would be required to make us self sustaining as far as our wool needs are concerned.

Canadians eat very small quantities of lamb and mutton, as compared to the consumption of other meat products. Last year lamb and mutton constituted only 1.7% of the total meat products consumed by Canadians. 50% of the meat eaten last year was beef, 35% was pork, with veal, canned meat, etc. making up the balance. It is the considered opinion of many authorities that the percentage of lamb and mutton eaten could be increased considerably if the supply was stepped up. For example the per capita consumption in Canada is only 2.5 pounds, in the U.S.A. 4.5 pounds, the United Kingdom 24 pounds, and a high of 78 pounds in Australia and New Zealand.

The sheep population in Canada reached a peak of 3.7 million in 1944, last December it was estimated that only 1.1 million sheep were on Canadian farms. This works out to about one sheep for every 13 people, in the U.S.A. there is one sheep for every 6 people, while in Australia the situation is reversed with 15 sheep for every person. With our population showing an increase of about half a million people a year, and over three million yearly increases in the U.S.A., it is evident that in the near future there will be no need to worry about meat surplus.

Probably the greatest opportunity for expansion of the sheep business in Alberta would be an increase of small farm flocks. In most districts of the Province soil and climatic conditions are favorable for sheep raising. The ability of sheep to utilize vegetation on waste places, summerfallow and stubble fields is well known.

A large capita investment is not required in order to get established in the sheep business. More mature animals can be purchased with a given amount of money than is the case with other classes of live stock, and, next to swine the increase in numbers is greater. The enthusiasm and interest of farmers in the district who now keep a small band of sheep, further emphasizes the feasibility of sheep on Southern Alberta farms.

Of Many ThingsBy Ambrose Hills
Winston Churchill

A neighbor of mine served on the staff of a railroad train which carried Sir Winston Churchill in Canada. This railroader still proudly displays the big cigar that Churchill gave him. With even more pride, he displays the book, personally autographed, which the great man was thoughtful enough to send him on his return to England.

When news came that Churchill had retired, my neighbor had genuine tears of sadness in his eyes. That is the kind of loyalty and admiration Churchill earned from other men throughout his life. Why? What is the secret of his strength?

I think it was his common sense. Churchill said what he thought — and said it bluntly and straightforwardly. Such straightforwardness always amazes the world. Consider his statement, made on May 13th, three days after he was appointed prime minister, in England's darkest hour.

"I would say to the House, as I have said to those who have joined this government; I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat."

"You ask what is our policy? I will say it is to wage war — by sea, land, and air, with all our might and with all the strength that God can give us; to wage war against a monstrous tyranny never surpassed in the dark lamentable catalogue of human crimes.

"That is our policy."

Well, that was it. That's just how the war was won. The way to win a war is to wage war in every possible way, with all the strength of God can give you. But had another leader been asked that same question of policy, the chances are he could have answered with hundreds of high-flown phrases with little bearing on the subject.

Many people have wondered how Winston Churchill, re-elected to high office after those grey years of austerity, was able to bring good times back again to England so quickly. Well, the answer, in his own words, was again plain and straightforward. He said, "We must beware of trying to build a society in which nobody counts for anything except a politician, a society where enterprise gains no reward and thrift no privileges."

No doubt we all admire Sir Winston Churchill. Perhaps the best way for us to show our admiration would be to learn, from day to day, to speak plainly, and to think clearly. Let us try to make this our personal tribute to one of the greatest men in the world.

Your Dentist Says

(By DR. L. G. ROBINSON)

Acid-Producing Bacteria Can Be Starved

"Hundreds of thousands living things floating around in my mouth? What do you mean?"

That is a common reaction when people are told of the tiny organisms of the mouth, some of which produce acids leading to the destruction of the teeth.

Most people know a little about bacteria, but usually think of them as germs that are associated with tuberculosis, pneumonia, diphtheria and similar diseases.

There are many thousands of bacteria of different kinds in the normal mouth — and elsewhere in the body, performing a valuable duty for the most part. But the kind we are mostly concerned with in these articles is one with the formidable name of Lactobacillus Acidophilus. Taken apart and interpreted, the name suggests a rod-shaped one that produces a certain kind of acid.

If we follow the advice given by our department of health, we will not feed them the things they like. These harmful organisms will then become discouraged and die off, until a very few are left in the mouth.

But if we feed them, many times a day, with highly-refined starches and sugars, such as white flour products, pastries, candies, sweet drinks and confections of all kinds, they will respond by working at top speed. Deposits of this sort of sweet, pasty substance will gather in the deep crevices and hidden spots around the teeth, and acids will form which will eat into the enamel.

These few simple suggestions, if closely followed, will help us to avoid much of the distress and discomfort that accompany dental decay.

Eat only at meal times; avoid snacks and confections between meals; brush off the deposits of food immediately after eating, and the population of these acid-forming bacteria will quickly dwindle near to the vanishing point, through sheer starvation.

Herronton News

The April meeting of the Herronton Community Club which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Holoboff was cancelled because of mumps in the Holoboff home. The May meeting is to be at Mrs. Randle's.

Phillip Gingras is the latest victim of mumps.

The F. Pfeiffer family are now employed at Owen Malmberg's.

The Herronton Girls' 4-H Club held their achievement night on Monday. Miss Lillian Popoff and Miss Amelia Randle were present to judge the very good sewing display. The program consisted of two demonstrations "Stain Removal" by Elaine Trassov, and "Gall Maisey" and "Clothes to Suit Me" by Mary and Sheila Cooke; piano solos by Canille Stewart, Mary Cooke, and Beverly Bennett; two duets by Caroline and Judy Bates. Miss Randle and Miss Popoff then gave talks explaining their methods of judging, etc. The girls then served lunch to the large gathering present.

Friends of Miss Mary Lou Dawes of Midnapore will be interested to hear that she is planning to continue her music studies in Austria.

The John Webb family and Elmer Laycrafts, along with several other Dinton couples, took in the square dance jamocoe at the Corral on Saturday. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. J. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. E. Laycraft and Mr. and Mrs. S. Beagle took in the Les Gilmore square dance at Penley's in Calgary.

Two new pupils are now at school. They are Diane and George Pfeiffer.
